The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted] [redacted] at Chicago, Illinois:

b6
b7C

On 5/9/94, [redacted] (aka [redacted],
[redacted], Real Estate Division, GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION (GSA), Region 5, 230 S. Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois, (312)353-5603, faxed SA [redacted] a GSA document which verified that DAN ROSTENKOWSKI's assignment of office space at 230 S. Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois was terminated on April 1, 1983.

Additional information obtained from the GSA document faxed 5/9/94, indicated that ROSTENKOWSKI's office was located on the 39th Floor of the KLUCZYNSKI FEDERAL BUILDING, building number IL0236FC, office assignment number AIL45185, 230 S.
Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois.

b6
b7C

On 5/16/94, [redacted] faxed SA [redacted] a GSA SPACE ASSIGNMENT RECORD (SAR) which verified that ROSTENKOWSKI was assigned office space at 230 S. Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois, effective May 1, 1975. The remarks section of the SAR stated that ROSTENKOWSKI's Office was relocated from the EVERETT MCKINLEY DIRKSEN BUILDING, 219 S. Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois.

The SAR also indicated that ROSTENKOWSKI's office was located on the 39th Floor of the KLUCZYNSKI BUILDING, but documented the building number as BIL0236FC and the office assignment number as AIL518574. The SAR was dated 6/9/75, and signed by [redacted] of the FEDERAL BUILDINGS FUND
ASSIGNMENT & UTILIZATION BRANCH, 36th Floor, 230 S. Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois.

[redacted] Date of Birth (DOB): [redacted] Social Security Account Number (SSAN): [redacted] was interviewed at his place of employment. After being advised of the official identity of the interviewing Agents and the nature of the interview, [redacted] provided the following information:

[redacted] advised that he has known [redacted] for approximately two years. [redacted] stated that [redacted] informed him that his prior employment experience was that he owned his own business in New York, and that he freelanced in the movie business in the Chicago area starting around 1984. [redacted] stated that this period was briefly interrupted by [redacted] suicide attempt in the year 1983. [redacted] stated that [redacted] was very successful in the movie support business, and has done set design for the movies Home Alone II, Dennis the Menace, Baby's Day Out, Miracle on 34th Street (the remake), and a new movie to be released entitled Peanuts.

[redacted] was not aware of any problems with memory lapses of [redacted] for any periods of time in his past. [redacted] replied that to his knowledge, [redacted] did not have a problem with memory loss, and seemed to recall things from his past very clearly. [redacted] further advised that [redacted] had no discussions with him regarding [redacted] who he is now divorced from.

b6

[redacted] stated that [redacted] formerly had a relationship with [redacted] just prior to the time that he met him, and that [redacted] used to run [redacted] Studios which used to perform not-for-profit theater.

b6

[redacted] stated that when various news articles came out in the Chicago papers regarding former and current employees of Representative DAN ROSTENKOWSKI, [redacted] mentioned to him that he was a former employee of ROSTENKOWSKI and that he worked for him

[REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] expressed no particular discomfort regarding the articles that were printed in the Chicago papers that mentioned his name, adding that all of the former employees of ROSTENKOWSKI were going to be interviewed. At the time [REDACTED] told him this, [REDACTED] did not recall many of the names that were listed in the articles as former co-workers. The excuse that [REDACTED] gave for this was that there was high turnover at ROSTENKOWSKI's office

b7C

[REDACTED] was unable to advise of the three summers that [REDACTED] worked for ROSTENKOWSKI, but he believed it was three consecutive summers. [REDACTED] stated that he had no knowledge regarding the arrangement for compensation to [REDACTED] attorney.

[redacted] Date of Birth [redacted] Social Security Number [redacted]

[redacted] home address [redacted]

[redacted] was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agents and the nature of the interview, and provided the following information:

[redacted] stated that he worked as an assistant for Congressman MARTIN RUSSO from approximately 1974 to 1983 or 1984. [redacted] handled immigration and Social Security disability problems at RUSSO's Office. [redacted] worked at RUSSO's Washington D.C. Office for approximately 7 or 8 months prior to returning to Chicago to attend classes at JOHN MARSHALL LAW SCHOOL (JMLS), 315 S. Plymouth Court, Chicago, Illinois. [redacted] started taking classes at JMLS, and began working at RUSSO's Chicago office located at 230 S. Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois, in approximately September, 1974. [redacted] could not remember the floor number at 230 S. Dearborn Street where RUSSO had his offices, but [redacted] believed that DAN ROSTENKOWSKI's office (located at 230 or 219 S. Dearborn Street) was a few floors above RUSSO's office. [redacted] was not certain if ROSTENKOWSKI's office was located at 230 or 219 S. Dearborn Street, because he had never visited ROSTENKOWSKI's office.

[redacted] was asked if he knew ED PIENCZAK and/or [redacted] [redacted] stated that he was more familiar with PIENCZAK than [redacted] because he had known PIENCZAK for a longer period of time, and PIENCZAK had a similar ethnic background. [redacted] stated that PIENCZAK worked for Congressman JOHN KLUCZYNSKI until KLUCZYNSKI died, then PIENCZAK started working for ROSTENKOWSKI. [redacted] was asked how he knew PIENCZAK worked for ROSTENKOWSKI, and [redacted] stated that he would talk to PIENCZAK at RUSSO's Chicago Office and RUSSO fundraisers. [redacted] stated that PIENCZAK told him that he (PIENCZAK) was working for ROSTENKOWSKI, and PIENCZAK would occasionally drop by RUSSO's office and ask [redacted] about an immigration case he had. [redacted] recalled the last time he spoke to PIENCZAK was in regards to an immigration case PIENCZAK was handling in the mid 1980's.

[REDACTED] could not specifically recall how he met [REDACTED] but stated that PIENCZAK may have told [REDACTED] to call [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] estimated that it was around 1980 when he first spoke with [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stated that he made that estimate based on his recollection that he was maintaining a satellite office for RUSSO at 230 S. Dearborn Street, around 1980 (because RUSSO had moved his offices out of 230 S. Dearborn Street) when he first spoke with [REDACTED].

Later in the interview, [REDACTED] recalled that he remembered having his first conversation with [REDACTED] a few days after POPE JOHN PAUL II was elected POPE (October 16, 1978). Most of [REDACTED] conversations with [REDACTED] were over the telephone, and [REDACTED] advised that [REDACTED] calls were more of a social nature than work related. [REDACTED] cannot recall ever having a discussion with [REDACTED] about Congressional work. [REDACTED] knows very little about [REDACTED] and only spoke to him approximately 15 to 20 times over a period of at most a year to a year and a-half. [REDACTED] was not certain, but stated that [REDACTED] may have been attending law classes at DePAUL UNIVERSITY, located in Chicago, Illinois (25 E. Jackson and/or 243 S. Wabash). [REDACTED] remembers encouraging [REDACTED] to complete his law degree.

[] has never received a gift of any kind from ROSTENKOWSKI or his staff. [] is not aware of gifts provided to any individual from the congressman or his staff.

[] is aware representatives from PMLIC have in the past attended fund raisers for ROSTENKOWSKI, however those have been relatively few in numbers over the past 8 to 10 years.

[] believes all contributions have been for $1000 and primarily were paid as entrance to a fund raiser. The PAC may have made a straight contribution although [] can not recall when that took place.

[] believes in 1986 he raised a total of $5000 for ROSTENKOWSKI as a request from []. He cannot recall who he contacted to come up with the money. He believes the PMLIC PAC probably contributed $1000 of that money.

[] recalls the $5000 was raised in connection with a reception held in Los Angeles to honor ROSTENKOWSKI. The reception was held at the home of []. In exchange for raising the money [] was named a member of the organizing committee and along with other prominent individuals was listed on the invitation. He believes the $1000 from the PAC was paid to AMERICA'S LEADER FUND.

stated that, for the past ten years, [redacted] has attended an annual New Years dinner held at ROSTENKOWSKI's residence in Chicago, Illinois.

[redacted] stated that he has given advise to ROSTENKOWSKI in the past, and ROSTENKOWSKI uses [redacted] as a sounding board for social and legislative issues. [redacted] stated that ROSTENKOWSKI wants to know what's going on in his community and solicits input from others. As a personal example, [redacted] stated that ROSTENKOWSKI wants to tax Social Security, and [redacted] told ROSTENKOWSKI that he [redacted] doesn't want ROSTENKOWSKI to tax Social Security, but ROSTENKOWSKI is going to vote for it anyway.

b7C

[redacted] stated that he has attended informal dinners with ROSTENKOWSKI wherein ROSTENKOWSKI has solicited his opinion on issues that effect local businesses in the Chicago area.

b6
b7C

[redacted] provided the names of some of the individuals that attended these informal dinners: [redacted]

[redacted] (once or twice), and maybe [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] advised that he received a chair, a miniature replica of the U.S. Capitol Building, one or two plates, and a golf sweater from ROSTENKOWSKI.

[redacted] stated that he received the chair approximately a year or two ago. [redacted] could not recall the exact date or time of year he received the chair, but [redacted] stated that it was not at the annual New Year's dinner. [redacted] recalled that he and his wife were waiting outside of ROSTENKOWSKI's residence, located on Evergreen Street in Chicago, Illinois, when ROSTENKOWSKI carried the chair out to [redacted] car. [redacted] could not recall a card or note accompanying the chair, but [redacted] stated that ROSTENKOWSKI probably said, "I got something for you." and gave [redacted] the chair. [redacted] does not know why he was given the chair, and was never asked to reimburse ROSTENKOWSKI for the chair. [redacted] stated that the chair is currently located at his residence in Skokie, Illinois.

[redacted] indicated that he has no recollection regarding the replica of the U.S. Capitol Building. [redacted] could not recall when, where, or how he received the replica, and does not know where it is currently located.

[redacted] was an employee for Congressman JOHN G. FARY from the Fall of 1975 until 1983. [redacted] stated that FARY was elected to the UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (USHR) in a special election held in 1975, to fill a vacancy created by the death of Congressman JOHN C. KLUCZYNSKI.

[redacted] stated that when FARY was elected to the USHR he kept many of KLUCZYNSKI's employees and moved into KLUCZYNSKI's office at 230 S. Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois. [redacted] stated that ED PIENCZAK was KLUCZYNSKI's Administrative Assistant (AA), and FARY didn't want to demote PIENCZAK so he made PIENCZAK his AA in title only. [redacted] stated that he was FARY's real AA, but was not given the title until 1978. [redacted] stated that sometime in 1978, PIENCZAK and FARY had a disagreement, and PIENCZAK left FARY's employment and went to work for DAN ROSTENKOWSKI. PIENCZAK told [redacted] that he wanted to work for ROSTENKOWSKI so he could build up his pension.

[redacted] assisted the interviewing Agent in making a sketch of the layout of FARY's and ROSTENKOWSKI's Office space at 230 S. Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois. [redacted] stated that from the Fall of 1975 to 1977, FARY's Office (formerly KLUCZYNSKI's Office) had an adjoining interior doorway with ROSTENKOWSKI's Office. [redacted] stated that, for approximately one and a-half years, beginning in the Fall of 1975, the only ROSTENKOWSKI employee he saw at ROSTENKOWSKI's office at 230 S. Dearborn Street, was ROSTENKOWSKI's AA WALTER NEGA. [redacted] stated that NEGA was at the office on an irregular basis and [redacted] had no idea what NEGA was doing at the office.

In 1977, FARY's Office moved down the hallway at 230 S. Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois, into what use to be the UNITED STATES BOND OFFICE. [REDACTED] stated that ROSTENKOWSKI's Office was reduced in size, and there was no longer an adjoining doorway between FARY's and ROSTENKOWSKI's office. [REDACTED] stated that ROSTENKOWSKI's Office became a small one room office with a single desk and telephone. [REDACTED] stated that from approximately 1978 until 1980, PIENCZAK was answering phones and working immigration cases at ROSTENKOWSKI's office at 230 S. Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois. [REDACTED] stated that he saw PIENCZAK at least once a week walking to ROSTENKOWSKI's office, but the door was closed most of the time, so [REDACTED] could not verify that PIENCZAK was there on a daily basis. [REDACTED] had no idea what PIENCZAK did after 1980 because FARY moved his office out of 230 S. Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois, and [REDACTED] never saw PIENCZAK again.

b7C

[REDACTED] stated that ELEANOR GEORGALAS was on FARY's payroll and worked immigration cases for FARY. [REDACTED] stated that GEORGALAS also helped PIENCZAK, when he was employed by ROSTENKOWSKI, with his immigration cases. [REDACTED] stated that when FARY moved out of 230 S. Dearborn Street, GEORGALAS was assigned to manage FARY's office located at 5200 or 5300 S. Cicero Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. Approximately twelve to eighteen months after the move, GEORGALAS put in her resignation letter. [REDACTED] stated that GEORGALAS wanted to be closer to home, and told [REDACTED] that she was going to work for ROSTENKOWSKI at his Damen Street Office. [REDACTED] stated that he never saw or spoke with GEORGALAS again.

b7C

[REDACTED] stated that the only ROSTENKOWSKI employees that worked at 230 S. Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois, were WALTER NEGA, ELEANOR GEORGALAS, and ED PIENCZAK.

b7C

[REDACTED] stated that if someone was working at ROSTENKOWSKI's Dearborn Street Office on a regular basis, he would have known about it. [REDACTED] stated that he had never heard of [REDACTED] and no one with the name [REDACTED] ever worked for ROSTENKOWSKI at 230 S. Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois, while FARY's Office was located at 230 S. Dearborn Street.

[redacted] stated that approximately 35 years ago she was on the Women's Board at the CONVENT OF THE SACRED HEART SCHOOL (CSHS) located in Chicago, Illinois. [redacted] stated that she had nieces and nephews who attended CSHS with [redacted] and [redacted]. [redacted] stated that CSHS was active in many after school functions, and [redacted] met [redacted] at these functions.

[redacted] also tutored [redacted] and [redacted] in Algebra and Geometry at the ROSTENKOWSKI residence located on Noble and Evergreen Street, Chicago, Illinois.

b7C

[redacted] stated that VERN-LYN REAL ESTATE was set up by [redacted] and [redacted] sometime in the 1980's to manage a property identified as 1368 W. Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois. [redacted] stated that [redacted] were equal in the 1368 W. Evergreen venture. [redacted] stated that [redacted] paid $7,500 a piece for the down-payment on the property, and took out a mortgage of $25,000. [redacted] could not remember the name of the previous owner, or the individual who told her that 1368 W. Evergreen was for sale.

[redacted] stated that toilets and gas meters lined the hallways at 1368 W. Evergreen and after [redacted] purchased the building they had it renovated. [redacted] was asked to identify the individual(s) who did the renovation work, and [redacted] indicated that she didn't want to answer anymore questions. [redacted] identified her attorney as [redacted] and a tentative date to continue the interview was set for July 6, 1994.

[redacted] stated that from the late 1970's to early 1980's, when he frequently went up to Lake Benedict, Wisconsin; many of the residents had gas storage tanks on the lake to fuel their boats. [redacted] stated that ROSTENKOWSKI didn't have a gas tank on the lake, and would fill-up his boats with gas at BENEDICT'S LANDING, a restaurant/lounge located on Lake Benedict. [redacted] stated that the gas tanks were removed from the lake around 1988 or 1989 for environmental reasons, and [redacted] does not know how ROSTENKOWSKI currently fuels his boats. [redacted] stated that, in the 1980's, ROSTENKOWSKI had a pontoon boat, Bayliner, 14 foot Starcraft, Jet-Ski, and a row boat, all of which had engines. [redacted] does not know how many boats ROSTENKOWSKI currently owns.

b7C

[redacted] stated that ROSTENKOWSKI ran a tab at the TWIN LAKES GARAGE, Twin Lakes, Wisconsin. [redacted] stated that on at least two occasions he had driven one of ROSTENKOWSKI's vehicles to the garage to fill-up with gas. [redacted] stated that TWIN LAKES GARAGE was a full service garage, and when one of ROSTENKOWSKI's vehicles drove up, the gas station attendants would recognize ROSTENKOWSKI's license plates and would put the gas expense on ROSTENKOWSKI's tab. [redacted] does not recall ever having to sign a receipt for the gas that was placed on ROSTENKOWSKI's tab. [redacted] does not know [redacted] and does not know how ROSTENKOWSKI paid his bills due TWIN LAKES GARAGE.

versions at the Illinois Toll Highway Authority on the man at the top—Gov. Edgar, her Republican opponent.

Netsch, the state comptroller, said Edgar can't escape responsibility for the extra pension system set up by the authority's board for top nonunion officials. The extra pensions are funded by the coins motorists toss into toll baskets.

Although the tollway-only pension plan began in July, 1990, six months before Edgar took office, Netsch said it represents the "old-style politics that Jim Edgar claimed he was going to do away with, and he certainly did not."

But an Edgar spokesman said the governor already told the authority board they should get rid of the extra pension system, which was designed to supplement the regular state retirement plan for about 460 nonunion employees.

"The governor has taken action to make sure the tollway authority the new tax revenue would be used to increase school funding and provide property tax relief.

Illinois Auditor General William Holland uncovered the second pension system earlier this year.
Last week, the authority said at least 62 officials have taken lump-sum buyouts from the system since it began.

One of those officials was Robert Hickman, the authority's former executive director and a longtime friend of the governor. Hickman, who retired earlier this year amid controversy over his use of the authority's helicopter and over a no-bid contract awarded to a firm employing his son, collected $83,863.

Edgar replaced Hickman with Ralph Wehner, a transportation professional. Wehner and other officials are examining whether the special pension fund should be restructured or eliminated.

Kotlarz Hit for Nondisclosure

By Ray Long
Staff Writer

A Chicago lawmaker who invested $150,000 in a company doing work with the tollway should have disclosed it on his economic interest statements, the state treasurer charged Thursday.

"If it wasn't on his disclosure form, it should have been," said Patrick Quinn, whose office is custodian of tollway funds. "That's the whole idea of that law."

State Rep. Joseph Kotlarz, a Northwest Side Democrat and former alderman, invested in a Massachusetts-based subcontractor of the company the tollway hired to produce a scanner system known as I-Pass.

Kotlarz could not be reached for comment.

He sat on the Illinois Toll Highway Authority's advisory board from April, 1993, until Wednesday, when he was removed by House Speaker Michael Madigan
(D-Chicago). Madigan's spokesman said Kotlarz had asked to be removed in May.

Within four months of joining the advisory board, Kotlarz had invested $50,000 in AT/Comm
Inc. and later invested the rest,
the company said.

In a brief statement, a spokesman said the attorney general's office is not investigating Kotlarz or the toll highway authority.

Opera Center Chief to Retire

Andrew Foldi, director of the Lyric Opera Center for American Artists, has announced his retirement effective August, 1995.

Foldi, 68, has been the director of the Opera Center, the Lyric's resident training center, since 1991.

The center offers year-round education and performance opportunities for young American singers. Its nine to 12 ensemble members are chosen from more than 400 who audition.

Foldi cited the physical demands of his position as his reason for retiring.

"During Andrew Foldi's all-too-brief but most fruitful tenure

here, the Opera Center has achieved new levels of artistic achievement and prestige," said
Ardis Krainik,
general director of the Lyric Opera.

A Budapest-born bassbaritone, Foldi began his opera career at the Lyric in the company's first season, 1954. He sang with the Lyric through 1959. In 1974, he returned as Sancho Pan-za in Nicolai Ghiaurov's "Don Quichotte." Most recently he was seen as Benoit in the 1992-93
production of "La Bohème."

RE WMFO teletype to Chicago dated 8/12/94.

Enclosed for WMFO are the following:

1) The original and two copies each of FD-302 interviews of [redacted] and [redacted] b6 b7C

2) Three 1A Envelopes containing the original notes of the interviews of: [redacted] and [redacted]

3) One Chicago Sun-Times article dated 8/12/94, regarding Illinois State Representative JOSEPH KOTLARZ's removal from the Illinois Toll Highway Authority's advisory board.

ADMINISTRATION

On 6/30/94, Chicago SA [redacted] interviewed [redacted]. During the course of the interview, [redacted] indicated that she didn't want to answer any additional questions without her attorney present. [redacted] identified her attorney as [redacted] and a tentative date to continue the interview was set for 7/6/94. The 7/6/94 interview was canceled because [redacted] needed time to locate her documents relating to 1368 W. Evergreen Street, Chicago, b6 b7C

On 10/3/94, [] provided the following information to SA []

b6
b7C
b7D

Source stated that he/she believes [] in his capacity as [] is using his position to help the cause of indicted U.S. Congressman DAN ROSTENKOWSKI. Source predicted that no decision would be made by the court on ROSTENKOWSKI's motion until after the November 8, 1994, election day. He/she commented that no information that would make ROSTENKOWSKI look guilty will come out of the court until after the election. Source suspects that [] is "in the middle of" any strategy by the court to minimize the damage to ROSTENKOWSKI's reputation prior to the election. Source indicated that [] may still be able to wield influence over judges in the District of Columbia.

Instructions

Subject Priorities for FBI Arrest or Locates:

- A - Subject wanted for crimes of violence (i.e. murder, manslaughter, forcible rape, robbery and aggravated assault) or convicted of such crimes in the past five years.
- B - Subjects wanted for crimes involving the loss or destruction of property valued in excess of $25,000 or convicted of such crimes in the past five years.
- C - All others

Claiming Non-Federal Arrests, Summonses, Recoveries or Convictions:

It is permissible to claim a local arrest, summons, recovery or conviction if the FBI significantly contributed to the accomplishment. A succinct narrative setting forth the basis for the claim must accompany this report. When claiming a local recovery, enter the word "LOCAL" to the right of the amount. Enter "LF" in the "In-Jail" block for all life sentences and "CP" for capital punishment sentences.

Reporting Convictions:

Convictions should not be reported until the sentence has been issued. There are two exceptions to this rule. The conviction information can be submitted by itself if:

1. The subject becomes a fugitive after conviction but prior to sentencing.
2. The subject dies after conviction but prior to sentencing.

An explanation is required in the Remarks section for either of the above exceptions.

Rule 20 Situations:

The field office that obtained the process (normally the office of origin) is the office that should claim the conviction, not the office where the subject enters the plea in cases involving Rule 20 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedures.

Investigative Assistance or Techniques (IATs) Used:

- Since more than one IAT could have contributed to the accomplishment, each IAT used must be rated.
- The IAT used must be rated each time an accomplishment is claimed. (For example - If informant information was the basis for a complaint, an arrest, a recovery and a conviction and if separate FD-515s are submitted for each of the aforementioned accomplishments, the "Informant Information" block must be rated on each FD-515 even if it was the same information that contributed to all the accomplishments.)

b7D

Source described Pennsylvania Congressman JOE KOLTER as a "nice guy" who was very tight with [redacted]. Source mentioned that [redacted] hired [redacted] to a position in the Capitol Police as a favor to KOLTER. [redacted] along with [redacted] performed personal errands for [redacted]. It was rumored that [redacted] knew a lot of secrets and inside information about [redacted] activities. [redacted] resigned shortly after [redacted] was ousted from his position as Sergeant-At-Arms (SAA) for the U.S. House of Representatives.

b7D

Source advised that KOLTER [redacted]

[redacted] Source informed that KOLTER is married and has a son who is a doctor.

b6
b7C

Source commented that KOLTER was taken down by [redacted] and [redacted]. He/she stated that KOLTER got in "too deep" with [redacted] and [redacted]. Source indicated that [redacted] was probably doing favors for KOLTER through the House Bank.

Source advised that [redacted] has not been seen on Capitol Hill lately. He/she commented that [redacted] is going to be very instrumental in getting Illinois Congressman DAN ROSTENKOWSKI all the assistance possible to fight the pending criminal charges against him. Source stated that ROSTENKOWSKI is just "one of many" corrupt politicians on Capitol Hill.

FROM 1976 THROUGH 1987, RUSSO WAS PAID APPROXIMATELY $90,000 IN SALARY FROM THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT. INVESTIGATION HAS SHOWN, HOWEVER, THAT SALARY RECEIVED BY RUSSO FOR DISTRICT OFFICE WORK IN REALITY WAS PAYMENT FOR CLEANING SERVICES PROVIDED BY RUSSO'S WIFE, IRENE RUSSO, TO ROSTENKOWSKI'S PERSONAL RESIDENCE IN CHICAGO DURING THE SAME TIME PERIOD. IT IS FURTHER BELIEVED THAT A PORTION OF THE MONIES PAID TO ROBERT RUSSO WAS "KICKED BACK" TO ROSTENKOWSKI. IT IS ANTICIPATED THAT THIS INDICTMENT COULD OCCUR AS EARLY AS 1/31/95.

ADDITIONALLY, A STATUS HEARING BEFORE JUDGE NORMA HOLLOWAY JOHNSON HAS BEEN SCHEDULED FOR 1/25/95, REGARDING THE PREVIOUS INDICTMENT OF JAMES NEDRA. IT IS ANTICIPATED THAT A TRIAL DATE FOR NEDRA WILL BE SET DURING THIS HEARING.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 9/7/94

[redacted] Social Security Number [redacted]
[redacted] work address [redacted] [redacted] was interviewed at the Offices of the FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION, and was accompanied by her Attorney [redacted]
[redacted] After being advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents and the nature of the interview, [redacted] provided the following information:

b6
b7C

[redacted] provided the interviewing Agents with various copies of tax documents regarding the partnership identified as VERNE-LYN REAL ESTATE (VLRE). The tax documents ranged in years from 1978 to 1985, but did not include tax information from 1979 through 1982. [redacted] also provided a copy of a (HUD-1) U.S.
Department of Housing and Urban Development, Settlement
Statement, dated 7/29/86, regarding the sale of 1368 W.
Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois. All of the above documents were placed into the 1A Exhibit Section of this file.

b6
b7C

Based on [redacted] review of the above documents [redacted] indicated that the VLRE partnership was started in 1978, as opposed to the 1980's, as previously indicated. The partnership remained in effect from 1978 until 1986 when the partnership was dissolved. [redacted] reiterated that the VLRE partnership was entered into by [redacted] and [redacted] for the explicit purpose of managing 1368 W. Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois.

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated that [redacted] had a joint checking account for the VLRE partnership, but [redacted] could not recall what bank held the account. [redacted] indicated that VLRE got the loan for the purchase of 1368 W. Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois, through GLADSTONE NATIONAL BANK; but [redacted] could not recall where the joint checking account was held.

b6
b7C

[redacted] described 1368 W. Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois as a three story building with 12 units/apartments. Each floor, including the basement, contained three apartments. Varying degrees of apartment renovations were performed by, or on behalf of, [REDACTED]. In order to describe what work was completed and who completed it, [REDACTED] separated 1368 W. Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois, into three sections: front, middle and back. The front section referred to the four apartments from the third floor to the basement that faced Evergreen Street, and the back apartments referred to the four apartments from the third floor to the basement that faced the alley.

b7C

[REDACTED] stated that 1368 W. Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois, was renovated from 1979 until a few months prior to its sale in 1986.

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] had disagreements on what should be done to the apartments and what types of materials should be used in the renovation. It was because of these disagreements that [REDACTED] hired different carpenters to work on different apartments at 1368 W. Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois.

b7C

[REDACTED] renovated the back apartments and [REDACTED] renovated three of the front apartments with the exception of the basement apartment. The basement apartment was totally gutted, and no work was completed on it, prior to the sale of 1368 W. Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois, in 1986. The middle apartments were renovated in part by [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] hired [REDACTED] hired [REDACTED] to complete renovations which they could not complete themselves.

b7C

[REDACTED] stated that she had no control over [REDACTED] and had no idea how [REDACTED] got paid for the work he had completed at 1368 W. Evergreen. [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] worked solely for [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] did no work on the interior of any of the rooms that [REDACTED] had renovated. [REDACTED] stated that she had seen [REDACTED] working in the front apartments, and described [REDACTED] work as beautiful, excellent, and the work of a craftsman. [REDACTED] also stated that [REDACTED] worked at a slower than average pace as compared to [REDACTED], but when [REDACTED] was asked to identify what work [REDACTED] had done on the apartments, [REDACTED] indicated that she couldn't remember.

b7C

[REDACTED] stated that she was at 1368 W. Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois, every weekday morning, quite often during [REDACTED] however, stated that she wasn't at 1368 W. Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois, enough to remember what [REDACTED] did at 1368 W. Evergreen. [REDACTED] stated that she would only see [REDACTED] in passing, and didn't spend her time talking with [REDACTED] did not know if [REDACTED] was working for [REDACTED] on a full-time or part-time basis. [REDACTED] however, did recall one occasion when she surprised [REDACTED] who was playing putt-putt in one of the front apartments.

b7C

[REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] had all the windows replaced at 1368 W. Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois. [REDACTED] recalled seeing [REDACTED] installing some of the windows, but [REDACTED] did not know if [REDACTED] installed all the windows at 1368 W. Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois. [REDACTED] stated however that she never saw anyone else but [REDACTED] installing windows at 1368 W. Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois.

b7C

[REDACTED] was asked if she had ever seen anyone else, other than [REDACTED] doing work for [REDACTED] at 1368 W. Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois. [REDACTED] could only recall one occasion when she saw two unknown individuals shoveling plaster into a closet.

b7C

[REDACTED] provided no additional information regarding [REDACTED] work at 1368 W. Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois. [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] had wood floors put into the front apartments, but [REDACTED] could not recall if [REDACTED] had done the work.

b7C

[REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] did the following work for her at 1368 W. Evergreen: [REDACTED] moved all the gas meters from the hallways and installed them in the attic, [REDACTED] installed a new water heater and furnace which included the installation of twelve heating units and new duct work for the entire building, and [REDACTED] installed glass block in the bathroom windows of the building. [REDACTED] also installed new bathtubs, toilets, kitchen and bathroom sinks, and carpet in the back apartments.

[REDACTED] stated that she painted the back bedrooms on the first and second floor, did some painting in the basement, put up drywall in some of the apartments, put up flowered paneling on the back stairway and its landings, and put up

[REDACTED] ceramic tile in the middle bathrooms. [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] assisted in putting up ceramic tiles in the middle bathrooms, and [REDACTED] wallpapered some of the apartments.

[REDACTED] did not know if building permits were obtained for the work done at 1368 W. Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois. [REDACTED] did not know if building permits were required for the work done at 1368 W. Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois. [REDACTED] did not know if 1368 W. Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois, was inspected by City Inspectors after the remodeling was completed.

b7C

[REDACTED] stated that in late 1985, her relationship with [REDACTED] had deteriorated and [REDACTED] wanted to sell 1368 W. Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois. [REDACTED] stated that she hired [REDACTED] a real estate agent for GOLDBERG REAL ESTATE, Chicago, Illinois, to find a buyer. [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] found two buyers who wanted to purchase 1368 W. Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois, for $295,000, but [REDACTED] wouldn't sign the sales contract. [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] was out of the country for a unspecified time period, and the sales contract expired. [REDACTED] stated that approximately January, 1986, [REDACTED] of 1368 W. Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois, offered [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] $190,000 for 1368 W. Evergreen.

b7C

[REDACTED] verified that 1368 W. Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois, was sold to [REDACTED] on July 29, 1986, and [REDACTED] indicated that she received approximately $54,000 on the sale, while ROSTENKOWSKI received approximately $102,000 to $105,000.

b7C

[REDACTED] identified the following people that were residents of 1368 W. Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois, while it was being renovated: [REDACTED] (phonetic). [REDACTED] (phonetic) first names unknown, and [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] had been a tenant at 1368 W. Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois, before and after [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] owned the property.

[REDACTED] also identified SOPHIE PALASZ as a person who might have information regarding [REDACTED] work at 1368 W. Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois. [REDACTED] stated that PALASZ, on a daily basis, use to sit outside her residence located next door to 1368 W. Evergreen, Chicago, Illinois, and PALASZ would Synopsis: Continued assistance for lead coverage is requested of the Chicago Division.

Details: For information of Chicago, the need continues for assistance in covering leads within the Chicago Division, on an as needed basis until such time as the Rostenkowski trial commences. Currently trial is scheduled for May, 1996, however, additional delays are very possible.

SA [REDACTED] has conducted an extraordinary amount of investigation in the Chicago area thus far, and WMFO is very appreciative of the manner in which leads have been covered, especially given the sensitivity of this matter and unrealistic deadlines which are often imposed by the U.S. Attorney's Office prosecuting this case.

b7C

In view of this, and the anticipation of additional investigation which will be required, it is requested that Chicago assign an agent to continue covering future leads until this matter has been successfully completed. If at all possible, it is requested that SA [REDACTED] continue with this assignment due to his familiarity and knowledge of the investigation.

THAT GAMBINO LCN SOLDIER, [REDACTED] GENOVESE SOLDIER,
[REDACTED] GAMBINO LCN ASSOCIATE, [REDACTED] LUCHESE

WERE INVOLVED IN A LARGE SCALE MONEY LAUNDERING AND MULTI-

FROM FOUR OFFICES LOCATED IN AN APARTMENT BUILDING IN

STRATEGICALLY PLACED IN CHICAGO, NEW YORK, AND SANTO DOMINGO.
ACCORDING TO THE CW, [REDACTED], AND [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] UNION OFFICIALS OF THE DISTILLERY WORKERS UNION, LOCAL

USED SEVERAL OF THE BUSINESSES, IN WHICH THEY HAD INFLUENCE, TO LAUNDER THE GAMBLING PROCEEDS. ONE CORPORATION IDENTIFIED

THE CW ADVISED THAT [REDACTED]

ESTIMATED THAT THE GAMBLING OPERATION WAS MAKING APPROXIMATELY

PEN REGISTERS WERE UNABLE TO CORROBORATE ANY CONTACT WITH ROSTENKOWSKI. CONSENSUAL RECORDINGS MADE BY THE CW WERE ALSO UNABLE TO CORROBORATE THE CONGRESSMAN'S INVOLVEMENT IN ANY ILLEGAL ACTIVITIES.

ULTIMATELY, A CONFLICT AROSE BETWEEN [REDACTED] AND [REDACTED] CONCERNING THE DIVISION OF THE GAMBLING PROFITS. IN ADDITION, ROOF PROBLEMS IN THE GAMBLING OFFICES FORCED THE OPERATION TO BE RELOCATED TO A NEW, UNKNOWN LOCATION. THE CW

Judge Orders Rostenkowski To Report to Prison July 22

By Toni Locy
Washington Post Staff Writer

Former representative Dan Rostenkowski (D-Ill.) was ordered yesterday to report to a federal medical prison in Rochester, Minn., July 22 to begin serving a 17-month sentence.

Rostenkowski, 68, who underwent prostate surgery last month, wanted to report to a federal prison in Oxford, Wis., which is closer to his native Chicago.

U.S. District Judge Norma Holloway Johnson granted him the extra time to recuperate but refused to allow him to report to Oxford. She told defense attorney Thomas Buchanan that the Bureau of Prisons, not Rostenkowski, will decide if and when he can do his time at the Wisconsin prison.

Johnson also said a probation office report done since Rostenkowski's sentencing in April shows he can afford to pay for the costs of his incarceration.

"It appears to me, without any doubt, that the former congressman will be paying his own way," she said. "I don't see any reason under the sun why he shouldn't be paying his way. With his retirement from the Congress, he can pay his way, plus."

Rostenkowski was not present at yesterday's hearing.

A spokesman for the Bureau of Prisons said the average cost of incarceration is $21,352 a year.

Rostenkowski, former chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, pleaded guilty in April to two counts of mail fraud in a case in which he was accused of misusing his office and its perks for decades.

On the courthouse steps after the sentencing, he lashed out at prosecutors and portrayed himself as a victim who did nothing different than any other member of Congress.

Originally, Rostenkowski was supposed to begin serving his sentence June 17.

But the judge agreed to change the reporting date after doctors at Walter Reed Army Medical Center removed Rostenkowski's prostate May 16.

Re: HEREIU Consulting Agreement With Dan Rostenkowski

Dear

The purpose of this letter is to confirm our understanding that the Hotel Employees and Restaurant Employees International Union ("HEREIU") has had, or continues to have, a consulting arrangement with former Representative Dan Rostenkowski (hereinafter referred to as "Rostenkowski") and/or his company, Danross Associates, Inc. ("Danross"), and to notify you that, in our view, Rostenkowski is disqualified from acting as a consultant to the HEREIU pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 504.

1. Rostenkowski's Mail Fraud Conviction

As you are undoubtedly aware, by an agreement dated March 27, 1996, Rostenkowski pled guilty to two counts of violating the mail fraud statute, 18 U.S.C. §§ 1341 and 1346, and was sentenced by United States District Court Judge Norman Holloway Johnson to 17 months imprisonment, $100,000 in restitution, and, possibly, the cost of his incarceration. During sentencing, Judge Holloway reportedly stated that Rostenkowski's actions amounted to a "reprehensible" breach of trust as a Member of Congress.

2. Consulting Arrangement Between the HEREIU and Rostenkowski

It is our understanding that the HEREIU has had, or continues to have, a consulting arrangements with Danross and/or Rostenkowski, and that Rostenkowski has provided consulting services to the HEREIU in connection with obtaining a neutrality agreement relating to certain unorganized employees of the Universal Studios Theme Park in Orlando, Florida. Please inform me, in writing, concerning: (1) whether the HEREIU continues to have a consulting agreement or arrangement with Danross and/or Rostenkowski; (2) the nature of services performed by Danross and/or Rostenkowski for the HEREIU; and (3) whether the HEREIU has paid Danross and/or Rostenkowski for any consulting services and, if so, when such payments were made, in what amount, and whether any additional monies are owed Danross and/or Rostenkowski for services rendered to the HEREIU.

3. The Application of 29 U.S.C. § 504 To Rostenkowski

In our view, 29 U.S.C. § 504 makes Rostenkowski ineligible to provide services as a consultant, labor relations consultant, or advisor to the HEREIU due to his conviction for mail fraud for a period of 13 years after his conviction, or end of imprisonment, whichever is later. Persons who "willfully and knowingly hire, retain, employ, or otherwise place any other person to serve in any capacity in violation" of § 504 are subject to a fine, imprisonment for not more than 5 years, or both.

Although mail fraud is not one of the crimes listed in § 504, the federal courts have long held that § 504 is not limited to the crimes enumerated therein, but, rather, should be broadly construed in view of its remedial purpose. In Serio v. Liss, 300 F.2d 386 (3d Cir. 1961), the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit held that a business agent was properly disqualified from holding office under Section 504 due to his conviction for atrocious assault and battery stating:

We believe that Congress intended the provisions of Section 504(a) to have an antiseptic and purifying effect on the conduct of union affairs by union officials and officers and made clear that an individual with a criminal record should not be employed in a position of union responsibility until he had reestablished his probity. . . .

Id. at 389.

Since Serio v. Liss, the federal courts have routinely held that § 504 should be broadly construed to prevent persons with criminal records from acting as officers, agents, or representatives of, or consultants or advisors, to unions. In Berman v. Local 107, International Bro. of Teamsters, 237 F. Supp. 767 (1964), for example, the court held that Mr. Berman's conviction for the Pennsylvania crime of conspiracy to cheat and defraud disqualified him as a candidate for the office of business agent of the IBT, concluding that the crime was the equivalent of either embezzlement or grand larceny under § 504. Similarly, in Lippi v. Thomas, 298 F. Supp. 242 (M.D. Pa. 1969), the court held that the plaintiff was not eligible to have his name placed on the ballot for President of District I of the United Mine Workers, stating that § 504 should be liberally interpreted to encompass willful misapplication of bank funds in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 656, a crime not enumerated in § 504. In so holding, the court relied upon the fact that "[a]ll of the reported cases . . . read Section 504(a) in a broad fashion so as to include crimes not specifically enumerated." Id. at 247. See, also, Postma v. International Brotherhood of Teamsters, 337 F. 2d 609 (3d Cir. 1964) (Section 504(a)'s reference to "extortion" encompasses federal and state offenses of extortion); United States v. Priore, 236 F. Supp. 542 (E.D.N.Y. 1964) (State crime of conspiracy to commit extortion is within the scope of § 504 irrespective of whether a misdemeanor or a felony).

In Illario v. Frawley, 426 F. Supp. 1132 (D.N.J. 1977), the court held that plaintiff's plea of guilty to an accusation charging that he knowingly and intentionally obtained money by means of false statements and representations fell within the scope of § 504 despite the fact that the crime was unrelated to the conduct of plaintiff's union affairs. The court relied upon the fact that the "[c]ourts are agreed that the enumeration of offenses in § 504 was intended to be generic and inclusive, rather than specific and exclusive." According to the court in Illario, "the test is . . . whether the conduct described in the accusation was conduct which Congress intended to suppress". Id. at 1140.

The courts have also broadly construed § 504 to encompass nonenumerated crimes in more recent decisions. See, e.g., United Union of Roofers, etc., No. 33 v. Meese, 823 F.2d 652 (1st Cir. 1987) (Held that misdemeanor conviction for violating labor statute forbidding the use of force or violence to intimidate union members in exercise of their rights disqualified plaintiff from holding office under § 504, stating that "[t]o interpret the disqualification list . . . other than as a list of generic descriptions would undercut [the] basic purpose" of § 504); Petition of Belpedio, 753 F. Supp. 239 (N.D. Ill. (1990) (Section 504 applied to local union official convicted of felony aggravated battery during a touch football game since Congress didn't intend to "limit the directive of Section 504(a) to crimes which occur in circumstances related to union activity" or which "raise the question of . . . trustworthiness").

In routinely holding that Section 504 encompasses nonenumerated crimes, the courts have relied upon the legislative history of Section 504 of the Labor Management Reporting and Disclosure Act, 29 U.S.C. § 401, et seq. See, e.g., 105 Cong. Rec. 6410 (1959) (statement of Sen. Ervin) (Congress wanted to disqualify persons convicted of "serious crimes" from union office); 105 Cong. Rec. 7021 (statement of Sen. Kennedy) (Congress intended to establish "strong barriers against the control of unions by unreformed convicted thieves, racketeers, and thugs"); 29 U.S.C. § 401 (" . . . in order to accomplish the objective of a free flow of commerce it is essential that labor organizations, employers, and their officials adhere to the highest standards of responsibility and ethical conduct in administering the affairs of their organizations, particularly as they affect labor-management relations"); Illario v. Frawley, 426 F. Supp. 1132 ("The intense concern that Congress felt over criminal activity on the part of labor leaders is reflected throughout the legislative history of the measure") (citations omitted).

Rostenkowski's plea agreement, and the government's factual proffer in support thereof, make apparent that the mail fraud conviction disqualifies Rostenkowski from serving as a consultant, labor relations consultant, or advisor to the HEREIU under § 504. According to the proffer, Rostenkowski admitted to misappropriating and misusing United States funds by using the congressional payroll to pay persons who performed personal services for Rostenkowski or members of his family and by ordering merchandise from the House Stationery Store which he used as personal gifts to family, friends and political associates. There can be no doubt that Rostenkowski's criminal activity is of the type Congress intended to reach under § 504 in order to insure that the affairs of unions, like the HEREIU, would not be influenced by persons convicted of serious crimes.

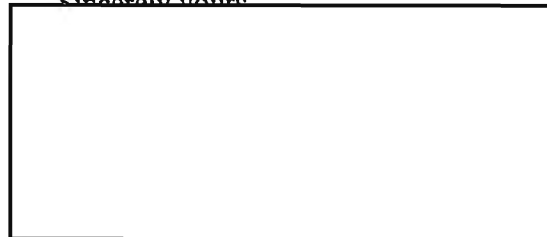

4. The Application of the Consent Decree to Rostenkowski

As a disqualified person under § 504, Rostenkowski is also a "barred person" within the meaning of ¶ 7(b) of the Consent Decree. Accordingly, the HEREIU and its officers, agents, employees, and representatives are permanently enjoined from "knowingly associating" with Rostenkowski, or from permitting Rostenkowski to exercise "any control or influence directly or indirectly, in any way or degree", in the conduct of the HEREIU's affairs. See Consent Decree, ¶ 5.

In sum, I trust the HEREIU intends to formally sever any consulting arrangements it may have with Rostenkowski as required by § 504 and request that you provide me with a written response to this letter at your earliest convenience.

Feel free to provide Mr. Rostenkowski or his attorneys with a copy of this letter, if you so desire.

Sincerely yours

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

Hon. Garrett E. Brown, Jr.
Civil Action No. 95-4596 (GEB)

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,

v.
HOTEL EMPLOYEES AND RESTAURANT
EMPLOYEES INTERNATIONAL UNION,
Nominal Defendant,

and
THE GENERAL EXECUTIVE BOARD OF THE HOTEL EMPLOYEES AND RESTAURANT EMPLOYEES
INTERNATIONAL UNION,
Defendant.

CONSENT DECREE

WHEREAS, the United States of America, through its counsel, Faith S. Hochberg, United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey has filed a Complaint seeking equitable relief under 18 U.S.C. § 1964 ("RICO");

WHEREAS, the parties have agreed to resolve the issues raised in the Complaint by way of settlement in order to avoid the costs of litigation, without any express or implied admission of liability or fault by or on the part of the defendants as to any of the allegations or matters contained in the Complaint;

WHEREAS, defendants acknowledge that historically, the Hotel Employees and Restaurant Employees International Union (hereinafter the "HEREIU" or the "union") and various constituent entities of the union (which are referred to hereinafter as including HEREIU Districts, District Councils, local unions and other "subordinate bodies" of HEREIU as that term is defined in the HEREIU Constitution, but which do not include the HEREIU Pension and Health and Welfare Funds) have suffered from an externally induced corruption problem;

WHEREAS, the United States of America and the HEREIU agree that within the HEREIU and its constituent entities, inter alia: (a) any vestiges of an externally induced corruption problem should be eliminated; (b) union democracy should be promoted and protected; (c) integrity in every aspect of the operations of the HEREIU and its constituent entities, should be fostered; and (d) the entire membership should be fairly represented;

WHEREAS, the United States of America and the HEREIU agree that the HEREIU and its constituent entities should be free from the influence of organized crime and other corrupting elements;

WHEREAS, the HEREIU, through the resolution of its General Executive Board (acting as representative of the union and its membership), has consented to the consolidation of this action with United States v. Hanley, et al. and has additionally consented to entry of this Consent Decree; and

WHEREAS, the parties have conferred and have devised a method to achieve the remedial objective described herein in the least expensive manner possible;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

JURISDICTION

1. The Court has exclusive jurisdiction over the subject matter herein and over the parties hereto. The Complaint states a cause of action under RICO. The Court shall retain jurisdiction over the parties and signatories to this Consent Decree and the subject matter of this litigation in order to implement the terms and provisions of this Consent Decree. If the Monitor, any party, or other person or entity files any separate action pursuant to this Consent Decree, such action shall be designated a related action pursuant to Rule 11D of the General Rules of this Court. The Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to decide any and all issues and disputes arising from the interpretation or application of this Consent Decree until further order of this Court. The United States shall have the right to intervene in the event there is a dispute regarding any interpretation or application of this Consent Decree.

2. This Consent Decree is binding upon all persons who have or may have any connection to the HEREIU and its constituent entities, including, but not limited to, current and future officers, agents, employees, representatives, members and persons holding positions of trust in the HEREIU and its constituent entities.

REMEDIAL OBJECTIVE

3. The remedial objective of this Consent Decree is that the HEREIU and its constituent entities be free from the direct or indirect influence of any organized crime group or the threat of such influence now and in the future.

DUTIES OF HEREIU OFFICIALS

4. All officers and other persons holding positions of trust in the HEREIU and its constituent entities, with due regard to the remedial objective of this action, have a heightened fiduciary duty to the membership in insuring the independence and the integrity of the union free from corruption and the influence of criminal groups as well as promoting democratic participation of union members in union affairs as guaranteed by the Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act (the "LMRDA").

INJUNCTIVE PROHIBITIONS

5. All current and future officers, agents, employees, representatives, and persons holding positions of trust in the HEREIU and its constituent entities as well as all current and future members of the HEREIU and its constituent entities are permanently enjoined:

- a. from committing any crime listed in 18 U.S.C. § 1961(1);
- b. from knowingly associating with any member or associate of any criminal group or with any barred person;
- c. from knowingly permitting any member or associate of any criminal group or any barred person to exercise any control or influence, directly or indirectly, in any way or degree, in the conduct of the affairs of the HEREIU and its constituent entities; and
- d. from obstructing or otherwise interfering, directly or indirectly, with the efforts of anyone effectuating or attempting to effectuate the terms of this Consent Decree or in attempting to prevent any criminal groups or barred person from exercising influence on the conduct of the affairs of the HEREIU and its constituent entities.

6. As used in this Consent Decree, the term "knowingly associating" shall mean that: (a) an enjoined party knows or should know that the person with whom he or she is associating is a member or associate of any criminal group or is a barred person; and (b) the association is more than fleeting.

7. As used in this Consent Decree a "barred person" is: (a) any member or associate of any organized crime family or other criminal group, or (b) any person prohibited from participating in union affairs pursuant to or by operation of this Consent Decree or other court order or statute.

COURT-APPOINTED MONITOR

8. The United States and HEREIU hereby recommend to the Court that Kurt Muellenberg, Esquire be appointed as Monitor of the HEREIU. In the event that Court desires to appoint a different individual as Monitor of the HEREIU, the Monitor shall be selected by the Court from a list of proposed candidates to be jointly submitted to the Court by Counsel for the United States and the HEREIU. Said parties shall submit additional jointly proposed candidates to the Court upon its request.

GENERAL POWERS

9. The Monitor, in addition to the powers described elsewhere in this Consent Decree, shall have the power to:

a. investigate, audit and review all aspects of the HEREIU and its constituent entities to advance the remedial objective of this action. These powers shall include the power of the Monitor to conduct investigatory interviews and sworn depositions to advance the remedial objective of this action;

b. request the United States Attorney or any agency of the United States to provide legal, audit and investigative personnel to assist in the execution of the Monitor's duties. For instance, the Monitor may request the United States Attorney to seek additional relief from the Court in order to protect or advance the interests of the union in achieving the remedial objective of this action. The expense of such assistance will be borne by the United States and will not be chargeable to the union;

c. retain legal, investigative, accounting and other support personnel at the HEREIU's expense and delegate any of his/her powers or duties to such persons, where, in the Monitor's discretion, such personnel and delegation are necessary to execute the Monitor's duties as set forth herein;

d. attend all HEREIU Executive Board meetings and HEREIU committee meetings (with the exception of bargaining committee meetings);

e. refer matters to the HEREIU or the United States Attorney for appropriate action;

f. perform all such functions and duties not specifically enumerated herein in order to fulfill his/her duties as Monitor.

REVIEW AUTHORITY

10. Whenever the Monitor reasonably believes that any of the following actions, proposed actions, or omissions to act (a) may violate the injunctive prohibitions of this Consent Decree, (b) may constitute any crime involving labor organizations or employee benefit plans, or (c) may further the direct or indirect influence of any organized crime group or the threat of such influence now or in the future, he or she has the power to:

i. disapprove the hiring, appointment, reassignment or discharge of any person or business entity by the HEREIU or its constituent entities; and

ii. disapprove or terminate any contract (including, but not limited to, contracts with service providers or vendors), lease, or other obligation of the HEREIU or its constituent entities.

11. The HEREIU may appeal the Monitor's actions made pursuant to Paragraphs 10 (i) and (ii) of this Consent Decree by filing a written appeal of such action with the Monitor within twenty (20) days of such decision by the Monitor. Only the HEREIU may appeal an action by the Monitor under Paragraphs 10 (i) and (ii) and any action by the Monitor which is not appealed in accordance with this Paragraph may not be appealed or otherwise challenged. The Monitor shall issue a written decision regarding any such action within twenty (20) days after he/she receives such appeal. The Monitor's decision, all papers or other material relied upon by the Monitor and the papers filed or issued pursuant to this appeal procedure shall constitute the exclusive record for review. The Monitor's decisions pursuant to this Paragraph shall be reviewed by this Court, if necessary, under the substantial evidence standard set forth in 5 U.S.C. § 706(2)(E). Materials considered by the Monitor but withheld from the HEREIU and the public which contain sensitive information provided by a law enforcement agency shall be submitted to the Court for ex parte, in camera consideration and shall remain sealed. The United States may seek the Court's review of the Monitor's action or failure to act in matters covered in Paragraph 10.

DISCIPLINARY POWERS

12. Discipline of Officials.

a. The Monitor shall have the right and power to remove, suspend, expel, fine or forfeit the benefits (with the exception of vested employee retirement benefits subject to title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act—29 U.S.C. § 1001, et seq.) of any officer, representative, agent, employee or person holding a position of trust in the HEREIU and its constituent entities when such person engages or has engaged in actions or inactions which (i) violate the injunctive prohibitions of this Consent Decree, (ii) violate any criminal law involving the operation of a labor organization or employee benefit plan; or (iii) further the direct or indirect influence of any organized crime group or the threat of such influence now or in the future.

b. Any officer, agent, representative, employee or person holding a position of trust in the HEREIU or its constituent entities who is named as a defendant in an indictment or other charging document accusing him or her of any crime relating to the conduct of the affairs of a labor organization or employee benefit plan shall be placed on temporary leave of absence, without pay, by HEREIU, or the constituent entity having employment authority over such person, during the pendency of the matter and an investigation shall be undertaken to determine if discipline should be imposed in accordance with this paragraph. In the event that the charge(s) in such documents is not sustained, the accused shall be reinstated in office or employment and paid the appropriate salary for the period of suspension during the unexpired term of office or employment which was held at the time of the suspension.

13. Discipline of Members. In addition to the rights and powers set forth in Paragraph 12, the Monitor shall have the right and power to impose discipline up to and including expulsion from union membership when a member of the HEREIU or its constituent entities engages or has engaged in actions or inactions which: (a) violate the injunctive prohibitions of this Consent Decree; (b) violate any criminal law involving the operation of a labor organization or employee benefit plan; or (c) further the direct or indirect influence of any organized crime group or the threat of such influence now or in the future.

14. Disciplinary Procedure. In order to discharge disciplinary duties under this decree, the Monitor shall have the same rights and authority as the HEREIU General President, the HEREIU General Executive Board, and any other officer, agent, employee, or representative of the HEREIU as well as the full authority derived from any and all provisions of law. When exercising his/her disciplinary rights and powers, the Monitor shall afford the subject of the potential disciplinary action written notice of the charge(s) against him/her and an opportunity to be heard. The Monitor shall conduct any hearing on any disciplinary charges, render the final decision regarding whether discipline is appropriate and impose the particular discipline. The charged party shall have 20 days to answer the charges against him/her and may be represented by counsel at any hearing conducted by the Monitor. Any hearing shall be conducted under the rules and procedures generally applicable in labor arbitration proceedings and decisions shall be made using a "just cause" standard. In conducting any hearing, the Monitor shall have the right and power:

a. to administer oaths. All testimony and other evidence shall be subject to penalties of perjury to the same extent as if such evidence was submitted directly to the Court;

b. to examine witnesses or conduct depositions;

c. to receive evidence. The Monitor may receive evidence withheld from the charged party and the public which contains or constitutes sensitive information provided by a law enforcement agency, and can choose what weight, if any, to give such evidence, but in no case shall the identity of a confidential source of law enforcement information be required to be disclosed; and

d. to issue subpoenas requiring the attendance and presentation of testimony of any person and/or the production of documentary or other evidence. Witnesses shall be paid the same fee and mileage allowances which are paid subpoenaed witnesses in the courts of the United States and such payments shall be made by the HEREIU. In the case of contumacy or failure to obey a subpoena issued under this Paragraph, the Monitor may: (i) impose discipline upon the person in accordance with this Consent Decree; and/or (ii) seek an order from the Court requiring the person to testify or to produce documentary or other evidence.

15. Appeal of Disciplinary Action. Any discipline imposed by the Monitor shall be final and binding, subject to review by the Court. A person disciplined by the Monitor pursuant to Paragraphs 12 or 13 may obtain review of the Monitor's decision regarding such discipline by filing a written appeal of such decision with the Court within thirty (30) days of such decision by the Monitor. The Monitor's decision, all papers or other material relied upon by the Monitor and the papers filed or issued pursuant to this appeal procedure shall constitute the exclusive record for review. The Monitor's decisions pursuant to this Paragraph shall be reviewed by this Court, if necessary, under the substantial evidence standard set forth in 5 U.S.C. § 706(2)(E). Materials considered by the Monitor but withheld from the appellant and the public which contain sensitive information provided by a law enforcement agency shall be submitted to the Court for ex parte, in camera consideration and shall remain sealed. The person disciplined by the Monitor may appeal the Monitor's decision regarding the discipline imposed against him/her and any decision by the Monitor regarding discipline imposed against a person which is not appealed in accordance with this Paragraph may not be appealed or otherwise challenged. HEREIU or the United States may seek the Court's review of the Monitor's decision not to impose discipline.

PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES

16. The HEREIU shall indemnify the Monitor and any person hired by or acting on his or her behalf from such personal liability and costs incurred to defend against any claim of such liability. In addition, the Monitor and any person hired by or acting on his or her behalf shall enjoy whatever immunity from personal liability that may exist under the law for court officers. The Monitor and his designee(s) shall, in addition to the powers and duties enumerated in this Consent Decree, have all of the powers, privileges and immunities of a person appointed pursuant to Rule 66, Fed. R. Civ. Pro. and which are customary for court-appointed officers performing similar assignments.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

17. The Monitor shall have unfettered access to, and the right to make copies of, all records or documents and officials, agents, employees, and members of the HEREIU and its constituent entities to advance the remedial objective of this action.

18. The Monitor, in his/her discretion, may provide the HEREIU with information he/she has discovered or received except that no confidential or sensitive information from a law enforcement agency may be so provided without approval by the Court on application of the United States. In the event the Monitor discovers or receives information which may indicate that disciplinary action by the HEREIU or one of its constituent entities is warranted, the Monitor may provide that information, subject to the limitation set forth in the previous sentence, to the appropriate HEREIU official, who shall report to the Monitor what action, if any, is taken.

NOTICE TO THE MONITOR

19. The HEREIU shall expeditiously provide the Monitor with prior notice of all HEREIU Executive Board meetings and HEREIU committee meetings (with the exception of bargaining committee meetings) and shall provide the Monitor with the minutes of all HEREIU Executive Board meetings and HEREIU committee meetings.

20. The HEREIU, its constituent entities, and their officers, agents, and representatives, shall expeditiously inform the Monitor about matters involving HEREIU and its constituent entities of importance to the remedial objective of this action including, but not limited to:

a. the discipline of members; officers, representatives, agents, employees or persons holding positions of trust in the HEREIU or its constituent entities;

b. decisions to hire, appoint, reassign or discharge persons as officers, agents, representatives, employees and persons holding positions of trust in HEREIU or its constituent entities, but not including salaried, nonsupervisory office staff and clerical personnel;

c. decisions to pay the expenses of any person or entity who is or may be subject to disciplinary or other action pursuant to this Consent Decree or related to this lawsuit;

d. decisions to hire or employ service providers or vendors in excess of $10,000 per annum;

e. expenditures or proposed expenditures in excess of $10,000;

f. decisions to enter into contracts, leases and other commercial obligations; and

g. any past, present or future action or inaction of a member, officer, representative, agent, employee or person holding a position of trust in the HEREIU or its constituent entities that (i) violates the injunctive prohibitions of this Consent Decree, (ii) constitutes any crime involving labor organizations or employee benefit plans, or (iii) furthers the direct or indirect influence of any organized crime group or the threat of such influence now or in the future.

COMPENSATION

21. The Monitor shall be compensated at a rate to be established by the Court, and shall be diligent in minimizing the cost to the union. The Monitor shall submit to the Court, the HEREIU and the United States Attorney a monthly itemized statement of services rendered. The HEREIU shall establish, maintain and replenish on a monthly basis an escrow fund in the amount of not less than $75,000.00 against which the fees and expenses of the Monitor shall be drawn.

22. In the event that any dispute arises over any aspect of compensation, the HEREIU shall immediately notify the Monitor and the United States Attorney of the precise reasons for contesting the validity of the billing and shall deposit the disputed amount in an interest bearing escrow account until the parties can resolve the dispute or until the Court, upon petition of the United States Attorney, resolves the matter.

REPORTS

23. The Monitor shall report to the Court periodically or when requested by the Court regarding the progress of the HEREIU and its constituent entities in achieving the remedial objective of this action. Every six (6) months after the date of this Consent Decree, the Monitor shall issue a written report to the Court regarding the progress of the HEREIU and its constituent entities in achieving the remedial objective of this action. Copies of such reports shall be provided to the United States Attorney and counsel for the HEREIU.

TERM OF THE MONITOR

24. Except as provided in Paragraph 25, the term of the Monitor shall expire in four (4) years from the date of this Consent Decree. If, at any time, the Monitor resigns, is discharged or becomes disabled from his/her respective duties, the Court shall select a new Monitor from a list of proposed candidates to be jointly submitted to the Court by the parties. The parties shall submit additional jointly agreed upon candidates to the Court upon its request.

25. Public Review Board. The HEREIU through the Executive Board shall create a Public Review Board (PRB) and adopt an Ethical Practices Code (EPC) in accordance with the documents attached to this Consent Decree as Exhibits A and B. Such PRB and EPC shall be presented to the HEREIU convention, scheduled in 1996, and shall be made a part of the HEREIU Constitution. If the PRB is created and an EPC is adopted in accordance with the terms of Exhibits A and B attached to this Consent Decree: (a) the term of the Monitor shall expire within six (6) months of the date the PRB is authorized and the EPC is adopted, or eighteen (18) months from the date this Consent Decree is entered, whichever is later; and (b) immediately after the expiration of the Monitor's term the HEREIU shall appoint the Monitor as a member of the PRB for a period of not less than two (2) years. However, the Monitor shall retain his/her independent authority to resolve to completion and decide all charges filed by him/her on or before the date on which the Monitor is appointed to the PRB.

26. Upon a showing by the United States that there is probable cause to believe that corruption or the influence of organized crime exists in the HEREIU or its constituent entities, the term of the Monitor shall be extended by the Court and the provisions of Paragraph 24 relating to the expiration of the Monitor's term shall be suspended. The Court shall thereafter enter such Order(s) as it deems necessary and proper regarding the continuation, scope or modification of this Consent Decree.

ELECTION PROCEDURES

27. All candidates for elective office in the HEREIU and its constituent entities must be free from corruption and the influence of any criminal group or any barred person. The Monitor shall be advised at least sixteen (16) weeks prior to the HEREIU General Convention, or at least six weeks prior to any General Executive Board meeting at which any vacant office will be filled, of all candidates for elective office in the HEREIU and such candidates shall be reviewed by the Monitor. The Monitor shall be advised at least eight (8) weeks prior to any scheduled or special election of all candidates for elective office in the HEREIU's constituent entities and such candidates may be reviewed by the Monitor. In the event the Monitor discovers information which may indicate that a candidate's election (a) violates or would violate the injunctive prohibitions of this Consent Decree, including permitting a barred person to serve; or (b) is or would be any crime involving labor organizations or employee benefit plans; or (c) furthers or would further the direct or indirect influence of any organized crime group or the threat of such influence now or in the future, the Monitor may disallow the particular nomination or election of the individual.

28. A person disallowed by the Monitor pursuant to Paragraph 27 may appeal the Monitor's action by filing a written appeal of such action with the Monitor within twenty (20) days of such action by the Monitor. The Monitor shall issue to the appellant a written decision regarding the appeal within twenty (20) days after he/she receives such appeal. The Monitor's decision, all papers or other material relied upon by the Monitor and the papers filed or issued pursuant to this appeal procedure shall constitute the exclusive record for review. The Monitor's decisions pursuant to this Paragraph shall be reviewed by this Court, if necessary, under the substantial evidence standard set forth in 5 U.S.C. § 706(2)(E). Materials considered by the Monitor but withheld from the appellant and the public which contain sensitive information provided by a law enforcement agency shall be submitted to the Court for ex parte, in camera consideration and shall remain sealed. A person disallowed by the Monitor may appeal the Monitor's decision regarding his/her candidacy and any decision by the Monitor regarding a person's candidacy which is not appealed in accordance with this Paragraph may not be appealed or otherwise challenged. HEREIU or the United States may seek the Court's review of the Monitor's decision not to disallow a person to seek or obtain elected office.

ADDITIONAL TIME FOR REVIEW

29. In the event the Monitor cannot reasonably obtain the information necessary to render an informed decision within the time periods set forth in Paragraphs 11 or 28, the Monitor may notify the HEREIU or the appealing former candidate that an additional twenty (20) days will be necessary to render an informed decision. In addition, the Monitor and the HEREIU or appealing former candidate may consent to extend the relevant time period. The Court may extend the relevant time period in which the Monitor may render a decision for additional fifteen (15) day periods for good cause shown.

EXPENSES

30. The HEREIU expressly agrees that it shall not authorize payment of expenses (including, but not limited to, expenses for employment of counsel) for any person who is or may be subject to disciplinary or other action pursuant to this Consent Decree or related to this lawsuit unless such person is exonerated of any wrongdoing in connection with such disciplinary or other action.

NOTIFICATION

31. Service of Consent Decree. Within thirty (30) days of entry of this Consent Decree, the HEREIU shall serve a copy of this Consent Decree upon each of its officers, agents, representatives and persons in positions of trust within the HEREIU and shall advise all other HEREIU employees of the existence of this Consent Decree, the fact that they are bound by the provisions of this Consent Decree and the fact that it is available for reference. In addition, within thirty (30) days of entry of this Consent Decree, the HEREIU shall serve a copy of this Consent Decree upon each of its constituent entities with the direction to advise the officers, agents, representatives and employees and persons in positions of trust within each respective constituent entity of the existence of this Consent Decree, the fact that they are bound by the provisions of this Consent Decree and the fact that it is available for reference. Within forty-five (45) days of the date of entry of this Consent Decree, the HEREIU shall provide to the plaintiff and to the Monitor a certification of compliance stating the fact and manner of compliance with this Paragraph and identifying all persons and entities who have been served with a copy of this Consent Decree. The HEREIU expressly agrees that it shall advise all candidates for office and all persons seeking a position as an officer, agent, employee, representative or position of trust of the existence of this Consent Decree, the fact that they are bound by the provisions of this Consent Decree and the fact that it is available for reference.

32. Publication of Consent Decree in the Official Journal. In addition to notice of this Consent Decree by service of copies to the persons and constituent entities described in the preceding paragraph, a copy of the Consent Decree shall be printed in the next issue of HEREIU's official journal which is scheduled to be published following entry of the Consent Decree.

OTHER AUTHORITIES

33. Nothing in this Consent Decree shall abrogate the responsibilities under existing law of (a) the HEREIU or its constituent entities, or (b) the officers, agents, representatives, employees or persons holding positions of trust in the HEREIU or its constituent entities. HEREIU and its General Executive Board hereby agree that the terms of this Consent Decree govern any provision of the HEREIU Constitution which may be inconsistent with the terms of this Consent Decree.

FUTURE ACTION

34. The United States expressly represents and the HEREIU expressly acknowledges that nothing in this Consent Decree precludes the United States or any of its agencies or individual agents from investigating the HEREIU, its constituent entities or any person or entity having any relation to this lawsuit and that nothing herein shall prevent the United States from seeking additional relief in this action or from instituting a civil or criminal action against any person or entity in the future and, in doing so, relying on any evidence or materials utilized in preparation for the present action or realleging any of the allegations made in the present action.

MODIFICATION AND ENFORCEMENT

35. Either party may hereafter make application to the Court to modify or enforce this Consent Decree and the Court may grant such relief as may be equitable and just, having due regard for the purposes of the underlying litigation, the remedial purposes of this Consent Decree and the circumstances at the time of the application. In the context of any such application, the record of all prior proceedings in this matter and in any matter involving the HEREIU, its constituent entities, or an officer, agent, representative, employee, member or person in a position of trust in the HEREIU or one of its constituent entities, shall be admissible to the extent that is necessary to make a fair and just determination of the issue. The Monitor or any party to this Consent Decree may apply to the Court for any order necessary or appropriate to implement this Consent Decree, including orders preventing non-parties from interfering with implementation of the Consent Decree. Upon satisfactory completion and implementation of the terms and conditions of the Decree, this Court shall entertain a joint motion of the parties hereto for entry of judgment dismissing this action with prejudice and without costs to any party. The parties further agree to review the implementation of this Consent Decree, including operation of any Public Review Board and Ethical Practices Code established in accordance with documents attached to this Decree, no later than four (4) years from the date of this Decree.

CONTEMPT OF COURT

36. Willful violation of any restriction or prohibition contained herein, or other disobedience to the mandates of this Consent Decree shall be punishable as a contempt of court.

SEVERABILITY

37. If any provision of this Consent Decree is hereafter determined to be invalid for any reason, the balance of this Consent Decree shall remain in full force and effect.

PRIOR DECREE

38. Nothing in this Consent Decree is to be construed as affecting the validity or operation of the Consent Decree entered on April 12, 1991 in United States v. Hanley, et al. and amendments to that Consent Decree.

AUTHORITY TO ACT

39. The signatories of this Consent Decree hereby expressly acknowledge and represent that they possess authority to execute this Consent Decree on behalf of the parties to this Consent Decree.

EXHIBIT A PUBLIC REVIEW BOARD

I. Purpose Clause: To review complaints and conduct hearings whenever necessary to insure the high moral and ethical standards in the administrative and operational practices of the HEREIU; its subordinate bodies and locals. To review all matters arising under the HEREIU Ethical Practices Code.

II. Composition: The Public Review Board ("PRB") shall be composed of three individuals of national prominence. The chairman shall be a person with extensive federal prosecutorial experience; the second Board member shall be an individual of national religious affiliation and/or national business prominence; the third Board member shall be the court-appointed monitor, former monitor or his successor of the HEREIU as ordered in United States v. HEREIU, et al., U.S.D.C., D.N.J., Case No. 95-4596 (GEB). Vacancies on the PRB shall be filled by the remaining board members who will consider recommendations from the International President of the HEREIU and its Executive Board, except that, during the pendency of the U.S. v. HEREIU, et al. action, a vacancy in the third board member seat shall be filled by the District Court upon the recommendation of the HEREIU and the United States.

III. Jurisdiction: To make final and binding decisions with regard to all matters presented relating to any possible violations of the HEREIU Ethical Practices Code and all matters referred to the Board by the court-appointed monitor pursuant to the above-mentioned Consent Decree.

The PRB shall have the right and power to remove, suspend, expel, fine or forfeit the benefits (with the exception of vested employee retirement benefits subject to Title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act—29 U.S.C. § 1001, et seq.) of any officer, representative, agent, employee or person holding a position of trust in the HEREIU and its constituent entities.

The PRB shall have the right and power to impose its discipline up to and including expulsion from union membership when a member of the HEREIU or its constituent entities is found to have violated the Ethical Practices Code of the HEREIU.

IV. Initiation of matters by the Public Review Board: the PRB may act on any matter it concludes that it is necessary to act upon in order to fulfill the objectives of the HEREIU Ethical Practices Code and the objectives of the PRB.

V. The PRB shall have the power to promulgate its own rules of practice and procedure and amend them from time to time as it deems necessary. (Attached is a draft Rules of Practice and Procedure that the Board may adopt, amend or modify at its initial meeting).

VI. The PRB shall submit annual reports to the membership of the HEREIU which will be presented annually in the HEREIU magazine distributed to all members.

VII. The HEREIU Executive Board is required to fund a budget to cover necessary expenses, including office; staff, travel and operating expenses. The budget shall include reasonable compensation to members of the PRB.

EXHIBIT B HEREIU ETHICAL PRACTICES CODE

I. Preamble: The purpose of this Code is to insure high standards of executive and administrative practices in the HEREIU, its subordinate bodies and local union officials.

A. HEREIU and subordinate bodies shall maintain adequate safeguards for the prevention of corruption, discrimination, anti-democratic procedures, and the association of any official of the HEREIU or its subordinate bodies with organized crime figures or anyone that would bring disrepute to the union.

B. Union funds are to be held in sacred trust for the benefit of the membership.

II. Financial Practices: Union funds are held in sacred trust for the benefit of the membership. The membership is entitled to assurance that Union funds are not dissipated and are spent for proper purposes. The membership is also entitled to be reasonably informed as to how Union funds are invested or used.

A. The International Union and its Local Unions shall conduct their proprietary functions, including all contracts for purchase or sale or for rendering housekeeping services in accordance with the practice of well-run institutions, including the securing of competitive bids for major contracts.

B. The International Union and its Local Unions shall not permit any of their funds to be invested in a manner which results in the personal profit or advantage of any officer or representative of the Union.

C. There shall be no contracts of purchase or sale or for rendering services which will result in the personal profit or advantage of any officer or representative of the Union. Nor shall any officer, representative or employee of the International Union or any Local Union accept personal profit or special advantage from a business with which the Union bargains collectively.

D. Neither the International Union nor any of its Local Unions shall make loans to its officers, representatives, employees or members, or members of their families, for the purpose of financing the private business of such persons.

III. Health, Welfare, and Retirement Funds:

A. No official, representative or employee of the International Union or a Local Union shall receive fees or salaries of any kind from a fund established for the provision of health, welfare or retirement benefits, except for reasonable reimbursement provided for in a collective bargaining agreement and expressly approved by the International Executive Board.

B. No official, employee or other person acting as agent or representative of the International Union or a Local Union, who exercises responsibilities or influence in the administration of health, welfare and retirement programs or the placement of insurance contracts, shall have any compromising personal ties, direct or indirect, with outside agencies such as insurance carriers, brokers, or consultants doing business with the health, welfare and retirement plans.

C. Complete records of the financial operations of all HEREIU health, welfare and retirement funds and programs shall be maintained in accordance with the best accounting practice. Each such fund shall be audited regularly.

D. All such audit reports shall be available to the members of the Union covered by the fund.

E. The trustees or administrators of such funds shall make a full disclosure and report to the members covered by the fund at least once each year.

IV. Business and Financial Activities of Union Officials: Any person who represents the HEREIU and its members, whether elected or appointed, has a sacred trust to serve the best interests of the members and their families. Therefore, every officer and representative must avoid any outside transaction which even gives the appearance of a conflict of interest. The special fiduciary nature of Union office requires the highest loyalty to the duties of the office.

A. No officer or representative shall have a personal financial interest which conflicts with her/his Union duties.

B. No officer or representative shall have any substantial financial interest (even in the publicly-traded, widely-held stock of a corporation except for stock purchase plans, profit sharing nominal amounts of such stock), in any business with which the HEREIU bargains. An officer or representative shall not have any substantial interest in a business with which the HEREIU bargains collectively.

C. No officer or representative shall accept "kickbacks," under-the-table payments, valuable gifts, lavish entertainment or any personal payment of any kind, other than regular pay and benefits for work performed as an employee from an employer with which the Union bargains or from a business or professional enterprise with which the Union does business.

D. The principles of this Code, of course, apply to investments and activities of third parties, where they amount to a subterfuge to conceal the financial interests of such officials or representatives.

V. Prohibited Conduct:

A. No current and future officers, agents, employees, representatives, and persons holding positions of trust in the HEREIU and its constituent entities as well as all current and future members of the HEREIU and its constituent entities shall:

1. commit any crime listed in 18 U.S.C. § 1961(1);

2. knowingly associate with any member or associate of any criminal group or with any barred person;

3. knowingly permit any member or associate of any criminal group or any barred person to exercise any control or influence, directly or indirectly, in any way or degree, in the conduct of the affairs of the HEREIU and its constituent entities; and

4. obstruct or otherwise interfere, directly or indirectly, with the efforts of anyone effectuating or attempting to effectuate the terms of the Consent Decree in United States v. HEREIU, et al., U.S.D.C., D.N.J., Case No. 95-4596 (GEB), or in attempting to prevent any criminal groups or barred person from exercising influence on the conduct of the affairs of the HEREIU and its constituent entities.

B. As used in the Ethical Practices Code, the term "knowingly associate" shall mean that: (a) the party knows or should know that the person with whom he or she is associating is a member or associate of any criminal group or is a barred person; and (b) the association is more than fleeting.

C. As used in the Ethical Practices Code a "barred person" is: (a) any member or associate of any organized crime family or other criminal group, or (b) any person prohibited from participating in union affairs pursuant to or by operation of the Consent Decree in United States v. HEREIU, et al.; U.S.D.C., D.N.J., Case No. 95-4596 (GEB) or other court order or statute.

JAMES R. THOMPSON

Governor of Illinois (1977-1991)

Partner, Chairman and Chairmen of the Executive Committee Winston & Strawn Chicago, Illinois; New York, New York; Washington, D.C.; Geneva, Switzerland, Riyadh, Saudi Arabia and Paris, France.

James R. Thompson (Republican) was first elected Governor in 1976 by a record 1.39 million votes, with 65 percent of the vote. He was re-elected in 1978 by 596,550 votes, a record for an incumbent, and he won unprecedented consecutive third and fourth terms to office in 1982 and 1986 respectively.

Following his first election to office, Governor Thompson presented a balanced State budget each year of the two-year term; cut the size of government; trimmed welfare rolls; maintained and improved human services; won legislative approval of sweeping reforms in the State's criminal sentencing laws; and began a program that provides almost $1 billion in tax relief annually.

In his second term, the Governor's accomplishments included: holding state spending growth to a rate below inflation; keeping the State's high bond rating intact; building more prisons to take violent criminals off the street; settling the Chicago school system financial crisis; making Illinois a leader in securing federal transportation funding; and bringing together business and labor to solve a number of important issues facing the State including the replacement of the corporate personal property tax and reform of the unemployment insurance system.

In his third term, Governor Thompson helped the State address the financial problems of recession while at the same time gaining legislative approval of a plan to provide vital State services; funding for education, the elderly, abused and neglected children and for the disabled and mentally ill. He also proposed the Building Illinois infrastructure improvement program; created the Project Chance welfare-to-work program; and secured a gasoline tax increase to fund needed road and bridge improvements.

In his fourth term, Governor Thompson continued to promote economic development; was responsible for securing National Scenic River status for the Middle Fork of the Vermillion river; expanded wastewater treatment facilities; strengthened child protection laws; signed Chicago school reform legislation; and kept the Chicago White Sox from moving out of Illinois.

Born May 8, 1936, James A. Thompson, Jr., the eldest of four children of Dr. J. Robert and Agnes Thompson, was reared on the West Side of Chicago.

Following undergraduate training at the University of Illinois and Washington University, he entered Northwestern University Law School, where he was awarded his law degree in 1959.

From 1959 to 1964, James Thompson served as a prosecutor in the Cook County State's Attorney's Office. In 1964 he joined the faculty of Northwestern University Law School as an Associate Professor. From 1969 to 1970 he was Chief of the Department of Law Enforcement and Public Protection, Illinois Attorney General's Office. From 1970 to 1971 he served as First Assistant U.S. Attorney and was appointed U.S. Attorney for the Northern District on November 19, 1971, and served until June 30, 1975. James Thompson has co-authored several books on criminal law.

On June 19, 1976, James A. Thompson married Jayne Ann Carr of Oak Park. Mrs. Thompson, an attorney, was formerly Deputy Chief of the Criminal Division, Illinois Attorney General's Office. They have one daughter, Samantha Jayne, born August 3, 1978.

Governor Thompson has been the recipient of 17 honorary degrees and numerous national and local civic awards. He served as Chairman of the Midwestern Governors' Conference in 1981, Chairman of the Republican Governors' Association in 1982, Chairman of the National Governors' Association (NGA) in 1983, and Chairman of the Council of Great Lakes Governors in 1985.

Governor Thompson was Co-Chairman of the Attorney General's Task Force on Violent Crime in 1981; National Co-Chairman of the Campaign to Protect Our Children in 1986; a member of the National Commission to Prevent Infant Mortality in 1986; Chairman of the NGA Task Force on Electric Utility Transmission Policy in 1986; Chairman of the NGA Task Force on Teen Pregnancy in 1987; Chairman of the NGA Task Force on Transportation Infrastructure in 1988, and Chairman of the NGA Task Force on Global Climate Change in 1989.

Governor Thompson was a member of the Working Group on International Economic Changes: Perestroika and East-West Security, Institute for East-West Security Studies. During his tenure as Governor, he established nine additional trade offices for the State of Illinois.

Governor Thompson serves as a member of the Board of Directors of FMC Corporation, the Chicago Board of Trade, the International Advisory Council of the Bank of Montreal, Prime Retail, Inc., Pechiney International, American Publishing Company, Wackenhut Corrections Corporation, Jefferson Smurfit Corporation and Union Pacific Resources Group, Inc. He also serves as the chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Illinois Academy of Fine Arts. He is the Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Illinois Mathematics and Science Academy Foundation and serves as a member of The National Trust for Historic Preservation, Chicago Historical Society, Lyric Opera of Chicago, Museum of Contemporary Art, Economic Club of Chicago, Chicago Council on Foreign Relations, and Chancellor's Advisory Board of the University of Illinois at Chicago.

ARCHBISHOP JAMES P. KELEHER

Archbishop James Patrick Keleher was ordained and installed as the Third Archbishop of Kansas City in Kansas on September 8, 1993, at Memorial Hall, Kansas City, Kansas.

Prior to being appointed Archbishop of Kansas City in Kansas, the Archbishop served as the Sixth Bishop of Belleville, Illinois, from 1984 till 1993. Prior to coming to Belleville, he served as President/Rector of Saint Mary of the Lake Seminary, Mundelein, Illinois and Associate Professor in the Department of Systematic Theology.

James Patrick Keleher was born on July 21, 1931. His father, James P. Keleher, died in October, 1972. His mother, Mrs. Rita Theresa (Cullinane) Keleher continues to reside in the Chicago area. He has one sister, Mrs. Hugh (Rita) Zick of Wilmette, Illinois. Mr. and Mrs. Zick have three children: Robert, Steven, and Dianne.

Archbishop Keleher attended Quigley and St. Mary of the Lake Seminaries and was ordained to the priesthood by Cardinal Stritch on April 12, 1958.

The Archbishop received his Masters Degree in Education and his Doctorate in Theology from St. Mary of the Lake Seminary, Mundelein.

He served as an Associate Pastor at St. Henry Parish, Rogers Park, after completing doctoral studies at the Seminary. After being appointed to Quigley Seminary North, Chicago, he did graduate work in the fields of sociology and history.

The Archbishop received a degree in Administration from Loyola University of Chicago and worked in academics and formation at Niles College from 1969-1972. From 1972-1975 he was Dean of Formation at the Major Seminary. During this time he also did post doctoral work in spirituality at the Gregorian University in Rome.

Archbishop Keleher was Rector of Quigley Seminary South until his appointment as President/Rector of St. Mary of the Lake Seminary in 1978. He has maintained an active interest in parish ministry since ordination and served every weekend in local parishes. Prior to going to Belleville, he devoted summer months to rural ministry in the Diocese of Great Falls-Billings, Montana.

In addition to his duties as Archbishop of Kansas City, Archbishop Keleher is the chairperson of the Committee of Economic Concerns of the Holy See of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops, chairperson of the NCCB Committee on Shrines, chairperson of the Ad Hoc Committee of the NCCB for National Shrines, a member of the Migration and Refugee Service Committee of the NCCB, a member of the NCCB Ad Hoc Committee on Stewardship, Episcopal Moderator for the National Catholic Stewardship Council, a member of the Committee of Bishops and Scholars, a member of the Subcommittee on Youth of the Secretariat for Laity and Family Life, an advisor to the NCCB Committee on Priestly Formation, a member of the Board of Trustees of the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C., and chairperson of the Pilgrimage Committee of the National Shrine Board.

Archbishop Keleher is a member of the NCCB Committee for the Church in Latin America. He is a member of the Board of Trustees of Catholic Mutual Relief Society and a member of the Board of Regents of Conception Seminary. He is also a member of the Seminary Department of the National Catholic Education Association and the Midwest Association of Theological Schools.

Rostenkowski Starts Prison Term

Associated Press

ROCHESTER, Minn., July 22—Former representative Dan Rostenkowski began a 17-month sentence for mail fraud today at the federal medical prison, where he will stay while completing his recuperation from prostate cancer surgery.

The Chicago Democrat, former chairman of the tax-writing Ways and Means Committee and confidant of presidents, will have a physical examination and receive any needed treatment during his stay at the Federal Medical Center.

Ultimately, the federal Bureau of Prisons will pick a prison, probably a low-security facility, for Rostenkowski to serve the remainder of his sentence. With credit for good behavior, Rostenkowski could serve about 15 months.

Rostenkowski, 68, pleaded guilty in April to converting office funds to his own use for gifts and to hiring people on the congressional payroll who did little or no official work. He also admitted mailing House payroll checks to his district office to pay employees who performed "personal or political service."

Ex-Rep. Kolter Gets 6-Month Term For Theft From House Post Office

By Toni Locy
Washington Post Staff Writer

Former representative Joseph P. Kolter (D-Pa.) was sentenced yesterday to six months in prison for secretly pocketing $9,300 from the House Post Office and lying about it on official vouchers that said he had gotten postage stamps instead.

U.S. District Judge Norma Holloway Johnson shook her head in disgust when she said that Kolter "betrayed the public trust" by abusing his power for such a small amount of money, which she repeatedly called "dirty lucre."

Johnson ordered Kolter, 70, who served in Congress from 1983 to 1993, to repay the money he stole from taxpayers. She also said he must pay the maximum fine of $20,000 and cover his $1,750-a-month incarceration cost.

Kolter, who has an assortment of health problems, tearfully told Johnson that he takes responsibility for what he did. "I regret that my actions have caused pain and embarrassment to my beloved family, my loyal friends, my former colleagues and my constituents," he said. "I trust they will forgive my transgressions with the same grace that the Lord Jesus Christ promises."

The judge said she is concerned about Kolter's health. He has had cancer, cardiac problems and both knees replaced. She said she will ask the Bureau of Prisons to tell her if it cannot meet Kolter's medical needs at its Rochester, Minn., medical center-prison.

Prosecutors Randall Eliason and Wendy L. Wysong argued that Kolter deserved the maximum 12-month sentence despite his health problems because of the "corrosive" effect his crime has had on public confidence in elected officials.

Johnson said Kolter deserved less time because he seemed to be more remorseful than other public officials caught with their hands in the public purse. "You appear to recognize that you have indeed committed a crime, as opposed to just conducting business as usual," she said, in an oblique reference to former representative Dan Rostenkowski (D-Ill.), who gave a defiant speech on the courthouse steps after Johnson sentenced him to 17 months in prison in April.

Kolter was snagged in an investigation of the House Post Office after the longtime postmaster, Robert V. Rota, cooperated and told authorities that members of Congress exchanged postage stamps for cash for their own use. Rota will be sentenced in October.

Originally, Kolter was charged with embezzling more than $40,000 in taxpayer funds: $11,000 from the post office and more than $33,000 in House Stationery Store merchandise. By pleading guilty in May to one charge covering the theft of $9,300 from the post office, he was the first former congressman to admit such a fraud existed. Rostenkowski vehemently denied it, suggesting it was a figment of prosecutors' imagination.

Former House Postmaster Receives 4-Month Sentence

By Toni Locy
Washington Post Staff Writer

Robert V. Rota, the former postmaster of the House Post Office, was sentenced yesterday to four months in prison for supplying former representatives Dan Rostenkowski (D-Ill.) and Joseph P. Kolter (D-Pa.) with cash in exchange for stamps.

Rota, 61, wept throughout the hearing where U.S. District Judge Norma Holloway Johnson refused to put him on probation. He reached out and held onto a podium as she imposed the prison term, a $2,000 fine and ordered him to pay $5,000 in restitution to Congress.

In deciding to send Rota to prison despite his cooperation with authorities, Johnson accepted prosecutor Thomas J. Motley's view that Rota had to be punished for lying to investigators in 1980 when the allegations about congressmen getting cash for stamps first surfaced, as well as coercing others to lie.

Johnson said she understood that Rota was under pressure not to cooperate with investigators—pressure exerted on him by Rostenkowski, the former chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, and others. "I know that those powerful men perhaps had such an influence on you that it was difficult to overcome, and it took a long time for you to stand up and say what was really happening," the judge said.

But, she said she couldn't give him probation because she was too troubled by his efforts to cover up the scheme, which prosecutors said spanned 15 years. "I do concern myself, Mr. Rota, with the fact that there was a time when you could have come clean," Johnson said.

Motley said Rota's coverup worked. Rota insisted in 1980 that no such scheme existed and he convinced another employee to lie to Justice Department lawyers, who then closed their investigation.

When the same allegations resurfaced in 1991, Rota used the same tactics. He told congressional investigators the allegations were not true. And he tried—this time unsuccessfully—to get another employee to lie.

Investigators got enough help from that employee and others to indict Rota in 1993. Several months later, Rota made a deal with prosecutors. He agreed to tell them about the congressmen involved and pleaded guilty to three misdemeanors involving conspiracy and embezzlement.

... supplied cash for stamps

Eventually, Rostenkowski and Kolter were charged with exchanging stamps for cash with Rota's help. Although Rota never got any money for his role, Rostenkowski was charged with getting $20,000 in cash for stamps—a charge he continues to deny. Kolter admitted getting $9,000 in cash for stamps.

There is a chance that Rota could serve his time in a halfway house because Johnson, at the request of Rota's attorney, Charles Leeper, said she would not object if the Bureau of Prisons put him in one. But she refused to make it part of her sentencing order.

Leeper said Motley had a point when he argued that Rota should have cooperated sooner. But he said Motley, seeing it from a "tough trial lawyer's" point of view, could not possibly understand "what it's like to be under the thumb of someone as powerful as Mr. Rostenkowski."

Rostenkowski, a one-time Chicago ward politician, led the Ways and Means Committee for 14 years and was one of the most powerful members of Congress. When Rota bucked Rostenkowski, Leeper said, it was "a true act of courage."

Johnson smiled when Leeper said she would never see Rota standing on the courthouse steps before a cluster of media microphones railing against her or investigators—as Rostenkowski did after he pleaded guilty last April and was sentenced to 17 months in prison.

When it was his turn to speak, Rota was overcome. "I have nothing to say," he said, weeping. "I did wrong, and I'm sorry."
